

WESTERN AUSTRALIA
PILBARA: PORT HEDLAND

BOODARIE STRATEGIC INDUSTRIAL AREA

A strategic industrial estate planned to support the growth of downstream processing for Western Australia's resource industries.

The Boodarie Strategic Industrial Area (SIA) is planned for strategic and downstream processing industries in Western Australia's Pilbara region.

The Boodarie SIA has been master planned to accommodate a range of mineral, gas processing and other strategic industries requiring access to the nearby Port Hedland port.

Boodarie is also connected to key regional road, gas, power and water infrastructure networks.

Proponents that have already chosen to invest in the Boodarie SIA include;

- > Alinta – power station.
- > Sub 161 – compressed natural gas.

Land is available in the Boodarie SIA for strategic and downstream processing industries and will be allocated by the Department of State Development through a lease arrangement with LandCorp.
